What do you think the prophets of Baal thought about being invited to this contest between Baal and the LORD?

If you were one of the people of Israel assembled on Mt. Carmel, what would you be thinking as you looked at Elijah and then at the 450 prophets of Baal?

What did I learn about God?

What did I learn about myself?

What will I do with what I just learned?

What point do you think Elijah was trying to make, when he started to taunt the prophets of Baal with insults against their god (1Kings 18:27)?
