Notes

G. K. Beale, in his commentary on Philemon states, "When there is no prayerful contemplation of divine blessings, there can be no attitude of thanksgiving." Do you agree or disagree with this statement? Why or why not?

What do you think Philemon's love and devotion toward Jesus and all the saints, looked like? What actions or attitudes did he display?

How can we participate in the expression of our faith with one another?

How can we refresh the hearts of fellow believers?

What did I learn about God?

What did I learn about myself?

What will I do with what I just learned?
