

Is it possible to maintain a good perspective about life, by remembering that God's word and people are eternal? Why or why not?

Why do you think people in general are not concerned about spiritual things (Matthew 24:37-39)? What part can you play in helping people see the truth about spiritual things?

Do you think "waiting" is something people in general have a hard time doing (Matthew 24:44)? Why or why not?

What are some ways you can be faithful while you wait (Titus 2:11-14)?
