

Without isolating yourself from the world around you, what are some ways you find helpful in keeping the influence of the world system to a minimum?

Why did Moses tell the people to fear the Lord? How does fearing the Lord influence your day-to-day life of faith (Colossians 3:22)?

What does it look like in practical terms, for you to love God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might?

Does Moses mean something more than communicating mere facts in Deuteronomy 6:6&7? Why or why not?